“Loving The Word of God “ Part 3
“Following the Instruction Manual”
Psalm 119: 25-48

Scriptures: Joshua 1:8; Psalm 119:42; 2 Kings 5:1-5; 9-14;
Ps. 119:47; 2 Kings 5:13; I Kings 5:15; Isa. 55:8-9

Questions:

- 1. What is your natural response when you are given specific instructions on how to do, be, or engage in something?

- 2. Do you have a tendency to look for shortcuts that you believe would be more beneficial to your desired outcome rather than follow the written instructions?

- 3. Do you struggle with your logic and reasoning that seems to be more practical and reasonable rather than heed the instructions of the word of God?

Bible Facts:

The first authorized Bible printed in English is the Great Bible of 1539. King Henry VIII of England declared that it should be read aloud during the church services in the Church of England.

Muslims believe that the Bible is revelation from God that has been corrupted by men. They believe that the Qu'ran is its correction.

The King James Bible (1611) is said to be unrivaled in its accuracy and literary beauty. In addition to 54 scholars, Shakespeare most likely helped with the translation.
