Three Questions:

1.	How does the thought of your personal responsibility to make disciples who will be a part of the church Jesus is building affect you?

2. What is the real reason why you are reluctant to invite your friends and family to church?

3. Does your daily prayer life include your participation in the advance of the kingdom of God through your willing participation?

We must be willing to call to memory our first response after having encountered the reality of Jesus
1. From the time you first met Jesus what things are different?
2. What things are the same?
3. What changes have you been willing to make?
4. What things still need to be addressed?
5. Wherein does the struggle lie between obedience and rebellion against the truth?
