“The Faithfulness of His Presence” Part 3
“Shout Before, Not After”
Joshua 6:1-11

Scriptures: Joshua 4:19-24; Heb. 12:1; 2 Cor. 10:4-5; Phil. 4:13; I Cor. 15:57; Josh. 6:10; I Kings 5:9-14; Josh: 6:16; Jos. 6:20-21; Mark 11:22-23; I John 5:14-15; Heb. 11:30

Questions:

- 1. Are you suffering in silent discontent as you walk around the walls that separate you from what you believe God has promised to give you?

- 2. Has the time lapse between “thought to be reasonable” and “what you believe is unbearable” collided and burst your reality bubble of patience?

- 3. Will you allow the word of the Lord to keep you going to victory by overtaking all the things that seem to have held you hostage?

Principles to Consider

- Waiting can push your faith to the limit
- The best things in life are achieved through faithful obedience
- Faithfulness is long obedience that refuses to let go of that which was promised regardless
- Job got it right “all of my appointed time I will wait until my change comes”
